APPRENTICE NEWS

All apprentices should have received the cost of their books and tuition in the mail. If not, contact the JATC office. Books will be distributed on the first day of class. Payment is also due by the first day of class. Check the web site, www.swwaejadc.org to get your school calendar and roster, or you can pick up your calendar on the first day of class.

The Western States Electrical Contest will be held in Portland, Oregon on September 23, 2006. Representing the SW WA Electrical JATC will be Devon Duvall, the top graduate of 2006. He will be competing against other graduates from 7 different states, representing approximately 28 programs.

The welding class at Bates Technical College South Campus will start September 12th and end on November 21st. Cost for the class is $111.00. Be sure and get signed up at the Bates South Campus main office. The item number to use is #2163. For those that will be taking the class at South Sound CC in Olympia can register at their main office on campus. Welding gear can be checked out at the JATC office at no charge to you.

Each class has a class representative that meets monthly with the Training Director or Lead Instructor. Here is a list of all the class representatives. 5A, Dave Huff; 5B, Gene Greer; 4A, Phil McEachin; 4B, Jenn Foster; 3A, Pat Martin; 3B, Charity Powers; 2A, Torey Mielke; 2B, Dean PitschIII. Representatives from the first year class will be voted on once their classes begin. If you have ideas to improve the JATC, talk to your class representative.

Notices for all "A" classes regarding your schooling will be sent to your employer, but it is up to you to inform your Foreman/JW when your classes will start and which day of the week. Make sure and give them plenty of notice in advance.

Check your trainee card for its expiration date, you do not want to have any lapses in your hours!!!

When filling out a OJT evaluation on your apprentice, please discuss all matters with them. It is the only way that they can improve if they have any shortcomings.

There are two ways to slide easily through life; to believe everything or doubt everything. Both ways save you from thinking.....

To a good listener, half a word is enough...

There are two levers for moving people, interest and fear...

The eyes believe themselves, the ears believe other people.

TD NEWS

Paul Fisher, who has been one of our day school instructors for the last two years, will be leaving as an apprentice instructor at the end of August to go back into the field. We would like to thank him for the outstanding job he has done with the apprentices. He will be replaced by Tom McDonald who comes to us with an impressive resume. Tom has been an evening instructor, teaching the 5th year class the last 5 years. He was running the service department at Madsen Electric for the last 10+ years and knows what it takes for an apprentice to be successful in this trade.
